Description:

Take a deep dive into one of St. Louis' most vibrant neighborhoods that oozes personality, Central West End, with award-winning Lip Smacking Foodie Tours.

Straight from the entertainment center of the world, Las Vegas, where its popular culinary walking tours have won a host of accolades, Lip Smacking Foodie Tours is the ideal guide for this most walkable, tree-lined neighborhood, where every block is chockful of boutiques, restaurants, and art galleries. Relax, mingle and network while enjoying fine eats with VIP service, without having to fuss with lines or reservations. Special cocktail packages are also available for an even more elevated experience. Experience these four spots:

- Taste: Make your way past a massive wooden door and dark velvet curtain to settle into an intimate tavern, where the small plates are plentiful and the cocktails stylishly served in antique glassware.
- Brasserie by Niche: James Beard Award-winning Chef Gerard Craft transports you dreamily to the iconic sidewalk cafes of Paris with his classic French bistro fare served in an inviting restaurant done up with red-and-white checkered tablecloths and fresh flowers galore.
- Yellowbelly: The Polynesian tiki bar concept has been reinvented for a new generation with a light, bright modern space with flair to spare. Its tropical murals and seafoam subway tiles make the perfect backdrop for stellar seafood-focused dishes and delightful rum-based libations.
- The Preston: Housed inside the Chase Park Plaza hotel, this chic establishment, named for the building's original creator, Preston J. Bradshaw, who designed the Chase Hotel in 1922, specializes in rarified New American cuisine, including sophisticated desserts that are the epitome of decadence.
