Description:

With its provocative mix of old and new, Gastown enthralled with cobblestone streets, Victorian buildings, and a rare Steam Clock that billows a puff of steam on the hour every hour. Join Lip Smacking Foodie Tours for an intimate look at Vancouver's oldest neighborhood that's now home to stylish boutiques, art galleries, eclectic eateries, lively pubs, and chic wine bars.

A knowledgeable guide leads this culinary walking tour, providing insight into this designated National Historic Site. The 3-hour tour includes stops at four of Gastown's most celebrated restaurants, where guests will enjoy 3 to 4 signature dishes at the best tables at each venue, complete with VIP service:

- L'Abattoir: Built in the 19th century on the site of what was Vancouver's first jail, this brick and beam building has been lovingly refurbished into a striking establishment that consistently makes "Canada's 100 Best Restaurants" list with its French-inspired West Coast fare.

- The Greek: This third restaurant by the Greece-born Makris family serves up modern mezze, made for sharing and lingering over. Portraits of the family through the generations adorn a wall, lending the restaurant an immediate warmth that's irresistible.

- Bauhaus: It's no surprise that this restaurant boasts an artsy vibe, not when it's owned by German-born film director Uwe Boll, who named it for the early 20th century German design movement. With its refined cuisine, it's been named one to watch by "The World's 50 Best Restaurants" list.

- PiDiGiN: At this casual restaurant, taste buds travel on a tantalizing journey, where Asian and Pacific Northwest ingredients combine with technical skill in dishes that exude intention and care.
